

RUSSIANS LINE UP 1,000,000 MEN FOR DEFENSE OF WARSAW

Jerome Says Thaw Will Go Back to Matteawan at Once

STORY OF FLIGHT OF THAW IN AUTO FROM MATTEAWAN

Two automobiles provided by former Assemblyman Richard Butler were in waiting—one at the gate and another, a high powered speed car, half a mile away. He was whisked away, across Vermont to the northern part of New Hampshire. He abandoned the automobile and took a train. Recognized just before he crossed the line, he was arrested in Canada.

Build a Tunnel to Rob.
BOSTON, Dec. 21.—A quantity of valuable furs were stolen from a store in the wholesale district early to-day by burglars who entered through a cleverly constructed tunnel from the basement of an unoccupied store in an adjoining building. An unusually large number of burglaries and highway robberies have been reported during the past week.

IN THE GERMAN ARMY.

AMSTERDAM, via London, Dec. 21 (Associated Press).—The newspaper Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant learns from Cologne that the German Archduke, Prince Louis, who is in the German army, has been forced to quit his cigarette habit through which wheat was lost at the rate of 400 pounds a minute. The prince missed him about 150,000 and found that the cigarette had filled part of the cargo almost to the top. The foreman at once called 100 men to the rescue. After an hour's shovelling they found him dead.

been notified that the thirteen tons of cotton contributed by generous American citizens and sent on the Holland-America liner Sommeladyk, would reach him this week. Five thousand tons of supplies are being shipped daily to Vienna and other hospitals through the Austrian Red Cross on Christmas Day.

Austria's wounded have suffered terribly because of lack of proper dressings of absorbent cotton. American soldiers who did not made a gift more in keeping with the day of anniversary of Him who healed the sick and comforted the suffering than this cotton.

THUNDER STILL SAFE,
LETTER FROM A SAILOR ON WARSHIP INDICATES.

DETROIT, Dec. 21.—The report sent out of New York last night that the British dreadnought Thunder was sunk in the North Sea Nov. 7 is incorrect, in the opinion of Harry J. Davis of this city, who has a brother serving on the battleship.

Davis said to-day he has received a letter from his brother, Frederick W. Davis, dated Nov. 18, stating the Thunder was about to go into dry dock to have her bottom scraped. The letter was postmarked London, but it did not get to Detroit until yesterday afternoon of writing. No mention was made of contact with a mine or torpedo, as reported from New York.

AUSTRIANS MAKING
NEW EFFORT TO RAISE SIEGE OF PRZEMYSL.

VIENNA (via Rome), Dec. 21 (United Press).—A supreme effort is now being made to raise the siege of Przemyel, a Russian garrison held here since a sortie toward Blizna and is desperately engaged with the Russians.

The Austrian force is endeavoring to effect a junction with the army which for the last three days has been attempting to reach the beleaguered fortress from San and Lasko.

The Russians besieging Przemyel, lacking both sufficient men and guns, are now declared to be hampering the chain of forts only on one side. Desperate fighting is in progress in the Carpathian passes.
